AKELM SMITH ONE LAST CRY

18 October → 20 November 2023

Press Release

AKEEM SMITH

Exhibition • One last cry

18 October → 20 November 2023

One last cry* is a new project by Akeem Smith: an exhibition presented after his residency at Lafayette Anticipations.

Sculptor and video artist Akeem Smith was born in Brooklyn in 1991 and lives in Philadelphia. He grew up in the Waterhouse neighborhood of Kingston, Jamaica. His work seeks to erase the distinctions between art, fashion and anthropology, thereby challenging the standards of Western cultural iconography. He is interested in the economics of image production in its political, social and commercial forms, and the role of the artist as archivist. For the past decade, Akeem Smith has been collecting a growing archive of photographs and VHS videos that document dancehall culture from the 1980s to the 2000s. His recent work celebrates this popular Jamaican movement, largely absent from institutional archives.

His exhibition at the Fondation, One last cry, brings together a video, Dovecote, composed of decorative welded metal doors, which enclose a back-to-back video work showing still images of women looking into the camera. Named after the Dovecote Memorial Park in Spanish Town, Jamaica, Smith's score is an audio collage of samples taken from funeral documentation found in his archives. Smith's use of decorative railings – which function on the island both as a deterrent to domestic crime and as signifiers of wealth. Smith explores the question of identity as it is written, invented and constructed in dancehall culture.

Here, he has chosen women with ambiguous attitudes, whose emotions and inner states are impossible to decipher. And new sculptures produced at Lafayette Anticipations; urns, each of which celebrates the memory of a remarkable, bygone moment, captured during one of these evenings. Placing historical artefacts alongside ready-to-use objects ensures that the archive does not remain a catalogue of the past, but a "broader and still living exploration of a community rooted in celebration ».

As official Partner of Paris+ par Art Basel, the Galeries Lafayette group supports the Galeries Émergentes sector for which Lafayette Anticipations awards an artist every year. Chosen by an international jury, the artist Akeem Smith produces new sculptures to be exhibited during Paris+ par Art Basel.

Production Support Programme

April → October 2023

For the first edition of Paris+ par Art Basel in 2022, the Galeries Lafayette Group chose to sponsor the Emerging Galleries sector and, in this context, to support the artist Akeem Smith by offering to produce a work with the support of the Fondation's production teams.

Akeem Smith is an multimedia artist who primarily creates installations from photographs and videos, who develops his practice between Philadelphia and Kingston based studios. During his residency at Lafayette Anticipations from April to October 2023, Akeem Smith benefited from financial support for production, access to the exceptional facilities of the Fondation's workshops, and the support of the curatorial and production teams.

As official Partner of Paris+ par Art Basel, the Galeries Lafayette group supports the Galeries Émergentes sector for which Lafayette Anticipations awards an artist every year. Chosen by an international jury, the artist Akeem Smith produces new sculptures to be exhibited during Paris+ par Art Basel.

Exhibition Issy Wood . Study For No

18 October 2023 → 7 January 2024

Lafayette Anticipations presents Study For No, the first solo exhibition of Issy Wood in France, bringing together more than 60 works by the British painter, most of which are being shown for the first time.

Borrowing its title from a 2019 painting, the exhibition unfolds around the notion of refusal and resistance, explored through the artist's obsession with intimacy, interiority, care, desire, femininity, relationships, and identity.

An observer of the contemporary world, Wood's work casts both an amused and disconcerted gaze on the power dynamics that rule over it. The characters and scenes she depicts unfold as allegories of the power games that govern our ways of living, which she explores through series of paintings of hypersexualized leather jackets, gleaming car interiors, immaculate porcelain services, singular portraits of domestic animals, invasive dental examinations, and a multitude of self-portraits.

Hyperproductive, Issy Wood approaches her painting practice as a form of diary, which she accompanies with daily writing and music composition that altogether form an intimate portrait of the artist.

Her work stands out as rejecting a certain order expressing an uneasiness in the face of the systems of oppression — both conscious and unconscious — which control beings, and make some vulnerable. The exhibition Study For No looks at how refusal is heard or ignored, while calling "to learn the power of using the word 'no.'"

MATER CAFÉ-RESTAURANT

The unmissable spot in the Marais to explore and enjoy new flavours.

The café-restaurant Mâtêr is rethinking the museum café with simple, healthy, local, and green gourmet cuisine devised by young, up-and-coming chefs.

Throughout the day and into the evening, regulars and visitors to the Fondation can take a break over fresh food and pastries that respect seasonality.

The café also boasts a great list of natural wines, original artisanal drinks, and carefully selected coffees and teas, to be enjoyed surrounded by the works of contemporary artists and the architecture of the legendary Rem Koolhaas.

In the evening, the restaurant also offers sharing plates, dynamic wines, and cutting-edge musical selections.

THE FONDATION

Art for another experience of the world

Created on the initiative of the Galeries Lafayette group, the Fondation is a place of exhibition and sharing dedicated to the visual and performing arts. Located in the heart of Paris in the Marais district, Lafayette Anticipations invites visitors to discover other ways of seeing, feeling, and listening to today's world in order to better imagine, thanks to artists, the world of tomorrow.

Expanding horizons

Each year, the Fondation presents three exhibitions of daring, inspiring, and moving works that present other visions of the world and other ways of living in it. The emerging music scene is invited to the Closer Music Festival in January, and the performing arts meet the visual arts during the Échelle Humaine festival in September. The public programme reflects, through talks, conversations, and performances, the ideas that shape and shake up our time.

Welcoming

The exhibitions are free of charge and can be viewed alone, in groups, or accompanied by mediators who encourage sharing, for a lively and accessible visit. The Fondation provides events and workshops for young and old alike and opens its doors in order to encourage the expression of all different sensibilities, welcoming the most diverse audiences.

Artists and creation at the heart of the Fondation

The workshops in the basement of the Fondation are a place of experimentation and creation for artists, with custom tools dedicated to production, film editing, and publishing. Each year a new design studio is invited to create visual identities in connection with the exhibitions.

In a building in motion

Like the changing world it reflects, the Fondation inhabits a modular building with mobile platforms designed by Rem Koolhaas. The Fondation is organised around its ground floor, which is open to the surrounding neighbourhood, rising up into exhibition spaces, workshops, and a children's studio.

An open space of life

The ground floor and its agora is a space of life that is open to everyone. The boutique presents the Fondation's publications, books related to the programme and to social issues, as well as design objects and records. At the Café-restaurant Mâtêr cuisine created by the resident chef is offered throughout the day and in the evenings.

A space of solidarity and care

Lafayette Anticipations cultivates a solidarity-based approach to creation: wellness-oriented visits, art therapy programmes, collaborations with partners in the medical-social field, and at-risk populations. The Fondation supports non-profit artistic projects and shares its expertise with young people from all walks of life.

Young generations and the spirit of transmission

Open to young audiences and their families, Lafayette Anticipations is a space for sharing. Texts for children, visits and workshops, festive events and activity books are provided free of charge. In collaboration with education professionals, the Fondation designs activities for visitors ranging from kindergarten to university-level students.

A collection of our times

Lafayette Anticipations continues its support for contemporary creation through its collection and acquisitions supported since 2013 by the Fonds de dotation Famille Moulin. Thanks to a committee of experts, the collection expands each year with works by emerging artists. The fund now includes 370 works which are representative of its commitment.
